CIRCULAR 52/2021
URGENT NOTICE SATURDAY LEAGUE

Good morning JBA

Regarding the COVID 19 alert reported from the Women's Nationals last week and the possibility of a further lockdown, and should we not be able to complete the league, the following will apply.

- League standings will stand at the announcement of lockdown.
- Top teams in both RED and GREEN section will be declared joint winners and promoted to the next division next season
- Teams at the bottom of each section will be automatically relegated.

Should Saturday league Should Saturday League 2021 continue, then the following semi-final and final rules will apply:

- Team 1 Red vs Team 2 Green & Team 1 Green vs Team 2 Red with the teams ending top of their section having home ground advantage for the semi-finals.
- All league finals will be played at one venue.
- The two finalists will be promoted.
- Should the promoting club already have two teams in the next division, the losing semifinalists based on their points in the section will gain promotion. Should the losing semifinalist teams have two teams in the next division, then the best of the third-place teams will be promoted and so on.

With the postponement of this week's fixtures, all future games will be played the following week and so on. Fixtures for 22 May 2021 will move to 29 May 2021. The league Semi-Finals, Final and JBA Fours final dates will be communicated in due course.

Yours in Bowls
